1) Claims 56 to 76 are pending in the instant application.
2) Claims 56 to 68 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 06 March of 2006. The traversal is on the ground(s) that "the examiner has not shown how the products of Groups II and III would be materially different from a naturally expressed protein or a cell naturally expressing the recited protein.

This is not found persuasive because, if the claimed products are not materially different from a protein and cell as they occur in nature, then the claimed compositions are not subject to patentability under 35 § U.S.C. 101 since they would be neither new nor the invention of Applicant.

Applicant has further traversed the requirement on the ground(s) that a search of the different inventions in a single application would pose no undue burden. This is not found persuasive because M.P.E.P. 803 states that:

"For purposes of the initial requirement, a serious burden on the examiner may be prima facie shown if the examiner shows by appropriate explanation either separate classification, separate status in the art, or a different field of search as defined in MPEP § 808.02. That prima facie showing may be rebutted by appropriate showings or evidence by the applicant."

Serious burden was shown in the original requirement by the separate classification and separate status in the art of the different inventions. Applicant has provided neither a showing nor evidence to the contrary. Applicant's assertion that the "examiner has failed to establish a prima facie case in support of restriction between Groups II and III because the examiner has failed to establish how the claimed products of Group III are different from the products of Group II" and that "the examiner has mischaracterized invention III as being drawn to an isolated protein" is clearly unpersuasive. Applicant has apparently chosen not to read their own claims. Group II, claim 68, is drawn to "an isolated GPCR-like receptor". Group III, as illustrated by claim 69, is drawn to "an isolated polynucleotide". A "receptor" is a protein, a "polynucleotide" is not. Applicant is advised that any argument that clearly ignores the facts of record is not going to be persuasive.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

3) The disclosure is objected to because it contains an embedded hyperlink and/or other form of browser-executable code in line 27 on page 10, in line 11 on page 31 and in line 28 on page 73, for examples. Applicant is required to delete the embedded hyperlink and/or other form of browser-executable code. See MPEP § 608.01(p), which states that:

"When a patent application with embedded hyperlinks and/or other forms of browser-executable code issues as a patent (or is published as a patent application publication) and the patent document is placed on the USPTO web page, when the patent document is retrieved and viewed via a web browser, the URL is interpreted as a valid HTML code and it becomes a live web link. When a user clicks on the link with a mouse, the user will be transferred to another web page identified by the URL, if it exists, which could be a commercial web site. USPTO policy does not permit the USPTO to link to any commercial sites since the USPTO exercises no control over the organization, views or accuracy of the information contained on these outside sites. If hyperlinks and/or other forms of browser-executable code are embedded in the text of the patent application, examiners should object to the specification and indicate to applicants that the embedded hyperlinks and/or other forms of browser-executable code are impermissible and require deletion."

Correction is required.

4) The figure in the instant application does not comply with 37 C.F.R. § 1.84(U)(1), which states that " [where only a single view is used in an application to illustrate the claimed invention, it must not be numbered and the abbreviation "FIG" must not appear".

5) The disclosure is objected to because text is missing from line 3 on page 5.

Appropriate correction is required.

6) The instant specification does not comply with 37 C.F.R. § 1.821(d) which requires a reference to a particular sequence identifier (SEQ ID NO:) be made in the specification and claims wherever a reference is made to that sequence. Table 5 on pages 24 and 25 of the instant specification discusses a plurality of amino acid sequences without employing the required sequence identifiers. Correction is required. See M.P.E.P. 2422.03.

7) Table 6 presented on page 34 of the instant specification does not comply with 37 C.F.R. 1.52 (C) with respect to font size. 37 C.F.R. 1.58 (c) states that:

Chemical and mathematical formulae and tables must be presented in compliance with § 1.52(a) and (b), except that chemical and mathematical formulae or tables may be placed in a landscape orientation if they cannot be presented satisfactorily in a portrait orientation. Typewritten characters used in such formulae and tables must be chosen from a block (nonscript) type font or lettering style having capital letters which are at least 0.21 cm. (0.08 inch) high (e.g., elite type). A space at least 0.64 cm. (1/4 inch) high should be provided between complex formulae and tables and the text. Tables should have the lines and columns of data closely spaced to conserve space, consistent with a high degree of legibility.

Correction is required.

- 8) Claims 69 to 76 are allowable as written.

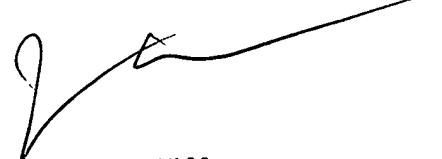

This application is in condition for allowance except for the presence of claims 56 to 68, directed to an invention non-elected with traverse in the reply filed on 06 March of 2006. Applicant is given ONE MONTH or THIRTY DAYS from the date of this letter, whichever is longer, to cancel the noted claims or take other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144). As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).

The prosecution of this case is closed except for consideration of the above matters.
